

San Gabriel

Award Winning City

- ◆ 1994 recipient of the prestigious James C. Howland “Award for Urban Enrichment” from the National League of Cities for enrichment of the urban environment.
- ◆ 1994 recipient of the “Helen Putnam Award” from the League of California Cities in recognition of the success of the Mission District revitalization project.
- ◆ 1997 recipient of the “California Healthy Cities 1997 Special Achievement Award” conducted by the Western Consortium for Public Health under contract with the Department of Health Services, recognizing policies and programs that improve community health and well-being.
- ◆ 1998 recipient of the International Cities / County Management Association (ICMA) “Award for Local Government Education,” in recognition of personal achievement and commitment to professional local government management.
- ◆ 1998 recipient of the Helen Putnam “Certificate of Honorable Mention” for the category of Children, Youth and Families in the 1998 Award for Excellence Program.
- ◆ 2001 recipient of the State of California Department of Parks and Recreation “Award for Excellence” for Smith Park.
- ◆ 2005 recipient of the San Gabriel Valley Economic Partnership “Community Revitalization Award” for revitalization of the historic San Gabriel Mission District.
- ◆ 2005 recipient of the Los Angeles Section of the American Planning Association (LAAPA) “Comprehensive Planning Award – Small Jurisdiction” for the City’s comprehensive general plan, “Ingredients for Success”.
- ◆ 2007 recipient of the Southern California Association of Governments “Compass Blueprint Excellence Award for Sustainability” in recognition of the City’s “Valley Vision” specific plan.

